

PROTECTION OF ADJOINING PROPERTY

1. The attached Form 3 & 4 need to be served on the adjoining owners and the relevant Building Surveyor.
2. Included with these forms you must also serve:
 - (a) details of the proposed building work as at the date of the notice; and
 - (b) details of the proposed protection work setting out the nature, location, time and duration of the protection work.
3. Before commencing the protection works the owner (or agent) in company with the adjoining owner (or agent) must:
 - (a) make a full and adequate survey of the adjoining property; and
 - (b) record in writing or by any other means any of the parties desires all existing cracks and defects in the adjoining property.

This record must be signed or otherwise acknowledged as an agreed record of the condition of the adjoining property before the commencement of any protection work.

4. Before commencing any protection work in respect of an adjoining property, the owner must enter into a contract of insurance against damage by the proposed protection work to the adjoining property and against any liabilities likely to be incurred to adjoining occupiers and member of the public during the carrying out of the building work and for a period of 12 months after that building work is completed.

The contract of insurance must be entered into with an insurer and for an amount agreed to by the owner and the adjoining owner.

The owner must lodge the contract of insurance with the adjoining owner before the commencement of the protection work.

The contract of insurance must be renewed or extended as often as may be necessary during the carrying out of the building work and for 12 months after that work is completed.
